

The GPD pub – “the evening glass class”

The GPD Pub welcomes you to share information on the glass business for the 9th time in conjunction with the Glasstec Fair October 23-26rd, 2018. “The Pub” has become established as the number one after dinner-meeting place, where the busy professionals at Glasstec are all eager to make the most of the contact opportunities with the world’s leading specialists in the glass business.

- Staging individual meetings with the large number of key people visiting Glasstec is not always possible nor practical. Yet the opportunity to touch base and share views with opportunities for follow-up is a most valuable asset, says Jorma Vitkala, founder of the Club Concept as well as the GPD Conference that takes place every second year, the next time in June 2019 in Tampere, Finland.

This exclusive opportunity offers the participants a space for get-togetherness in a relaxed and less formal surrounding. Business associates and friends meet each other in a before or after dinner mood for an exchange of views about the trends and the visions of the glass business.

- The special benefit of the Pub arrangement is that it offers an informal forum for the strengthening of relationships created during the fair, comment Mikko Filmer and Marc Everling from AGC Interpane, one of the corporate sponsors of the event. Opportunities are created for exchanging views with seasoned specialists such as structural engineers, architects and façade builders, researchers, academic professionals, industry and processors. The host sponsors line up their best contacts for these Pub encounters and are committed to cater both to the professional and social needs of their guests. The Pub is an ideal place to meet old and prospective customers.

Currently the Pub 2018 is sponsored by leading organizations such as AGC Interpane, Fenetech, Advanced Energy Industries, Ashton Industrial, Dow, Evguard, Dormakaba, Kramer & Best, A+W, Bohle AG Ltd, Everlam, Wenna Glas, Cam and Glaston. Now it is time to experience the most inspiring atmosphere with professionals around the world!

The upcoming GPD Pub opens up in October 23-26rd, 2018 at Bolkerstrasse 55 in the heart of Düsseldorf’s Altstadt.
